me and the monkey are off to barbados, wonder if anyone's got any tips for good sailing spots / clubs etc? also the reef surf champ is on while we're there, my other half and mates are already going "ape" scuse the pun about the reef bunnies. :sick: does anyone happen to know if kelly slater is still in these champs, me and luce need something to oggle and an excuse to blatantly ignore our dribbling other halves.

Me and he monkey indeed!! How Rude!!

Were flying out 1st Nov, we've been doing some search around and really can't see any details about a surf comp. Hey Ho,

On another point has any one sailed @ silver sands before? What/who/where i guess is what I need to know.

Don't really like the bumpy stuf so is there any flat water venues in barbados?

Thank you muchly:)
