You may have seen my posting a few months ago about the construction of our new resort (REEF RETREAT RESORT) on Bulabog Beach, Boracay Island, Philippines.

We are now open for business, so if you fancy a windsurfing holiday with crystal clear turquoise waters and sunshine, then why not drop us and email at reef.retreat@hotmail.com. Or check out our website www.reefretreatboracay.com

Look forward to hearing from you.
