
Official Launch of National Windsurfing Week

Posted by GaleForce8 - 2007/12/01 22:10

Well were off and running, we had our official launch at the Whyte & Mackay Earls Court Boat Show on Friday 30th November. Bryony Shaw, Olympic windsurfer was kind enough to launch the event for us.

What can you do to help? Well for starters, make sure everyone knows it's happening, 3rd - 11th May 2008.

Write up and some photo's here:

Hope you all had some good windsurfing today with all the wind.
