15 knots gusting 20, S, not so sunny and about 9C. Could be good for a kite...

High tide at 11.30ish and 9m...

Got there just after 12.00 most on 4.7m. Aparently the morning had been good but loads of sailors were now packing up so I went out on 5.0m and 70lt. Nothing special and the wind gradually died off so by 2.00 I wasn't going anywhere. If it had been a warm and sunny summer day I would have changed up to a biiger sail and board but as it was I couldn't be bothered so went back to work.
