hi, i somehow managed to loose one of my sails: a north rave 5.3, colours orange and yellow. must have happened a in january at wk but i only now noticed (heven't been out since) when goint to wk today. if any body has found it - i'd be grateful if you could let me know.

thanks

jochen

I'm sure I remember someone handing a sail in to the blue hut one day last month.

Give em a ring , you might be lucky B) i spoke to one of the wardens yesterday, but he didn't know of any sail - would be difficult to miss in that huge hut...
