
Massive road trip!

Posted by HAIRBear - 2010/09/09 18:33

Basically ive just bought a VW T4 and im not gagging to get on a road trip!

I'll update the thread when its more finalised as im waiting for dates from a couple of mates.

I live in Colchester so was thinking of heading south and doing a road trip along the whole southern coast. Going by the venue map on the site it should be really good!

Thinking between 1 and 2 weeks towards the end of year/beggining of next year.

So if anyone fancies joining at any point along the way or has any must go spots let me know :D

Sam.
