Just a quick good luck message to Mark H and all the other I Windsurf sailors taking part in the Speed Event at Weymouth. I cannot be there myself as on holiday the same week but hope the wind blows for you all. Keep us informed as you go along during the week.

All the best Andy B

Thanks Andy, I'm going to need all the luck I can get to avoid grabbing bottom position, Lots of V fast WS attending. I think theres 7 or 8 iwindsurfers going this year, so maybe even more next year. Really looking forward to it.

Cheers

I just read that wrong and thought that you were going to be avoiding bottom grabbing position! but that would be a whole other matter!!!!

Good luck. ;)

Ha ha, very funny. What I meant to say was "avoid being last".

Cheers
